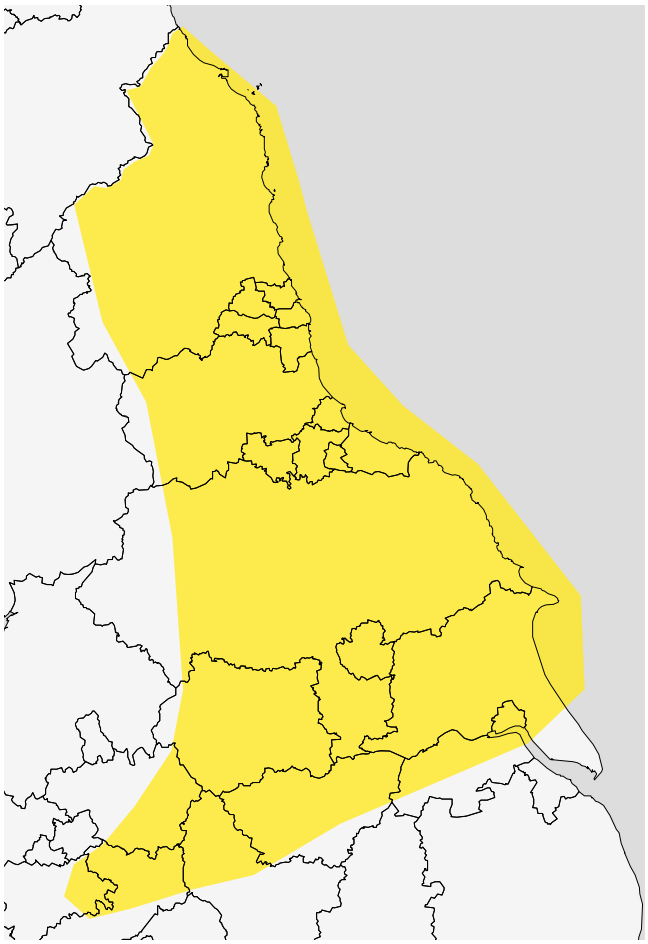
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Thu 17 Nov 2022 and
07:00 Fri 18 Nov 2022



Heavy rain leading to flooding and disruption in a few places.

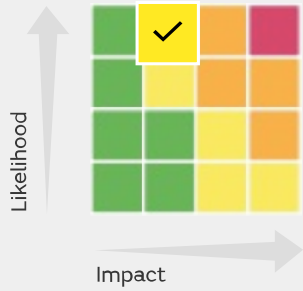
What to expect

- Spray and flooding on roads will make journey times longer
- Bus and train services affected with journey times taking longer
- A few homes and businesses flooded

Further details

Outbreaks of rain, heavy at times will continue to affect parts of the north Midlands and northern England during much of Thursday, and probably lasting into the start of Friday across parts of northeast England, particularly Northumberland.

30 to 40 mm rain is likely to fall quite widely, with 60 mm in a few places and perhaps over 80 mm on higher ground. This brings a chance of flooding and disruption.



✓ High likelihood of low impacts

Yellow warning
Rain

00:00 Thu 17 Nov 2022 and
07:00 Fri 18 Nov 2022

Reason for update

Parts of north Wales and the Midlands have been removed from the warning area, as rainfall amounts now look less likely to be as high in these areas. The warning end time has been extended into early Friday to cater for slower clearance across Northumberland. The impact level has also been decreased.
